Subject: External Assessments – Academic Year 2026–2027

Dear Parents,

Elite English School has been proactive in encouraging students to confidently match themselves with the students across different curriculum via the various benchmarking tests. Our students have also performed admirably well through the years. We would like to draw your attention to the importance of these results featuring in the academic records of student during transition phases. Your unreserved & admirable support to your ward is evident in various aspects of his/her school life. We are confident that this continued support will be instrumental in empowering our teachers to tailor instruction to meet your child's needs thereby ensuring that he/she stays productively challenged, confident and perfectly prepared for future milestones.

This circular is being sent to inform your about important milestone benchmarking assessments scheduled to be conducted as per the following schedule:

Assessment	Grades	Schedule
Reading Assessment	Grades 1–9	October & February
GL CAT4	Grade 1 & New Admissions	October
Arabic ABT	Grades 3–9	November
ASSET – English, Mathematics & Science	Grades 3–9	January–February

Please note that the invoices for the applicable assessment dues have already been shared with parents. Parents who have not yet made the payment are requested to do so through the payment links provided by the school.

We look forward to your unstinting and continued support.

Best Regards,

Dr. Kiran Mathai
